THE OLD SCHOOL

ONE OF THREE GOOD REASONS
TO VISIT
MISHICOT, WISCONSIN

Where craftsmen create just for you

Mishicot — a small village nestled in the rolling countryside of Northeast Wisconsin. Tiny, perhaps. But fun to visit — for a day, overnight, or longer! Easily accessible from Chicago, Milwaukee, Green Bay (or wherever!) Mishicot is waiting to welcome you.

The Old School in the Village of Mishicot is in session again — for your pleasure. Plan to visit and shop there soon. See handicrafters at work and lots more. Some of the interesting things to see during your visit to the traditional grammar school setting include handcarved signs, Svoboda Industries clock kits and furniture, handsewn quilts, ceramics, paintings, and a very special Norman Rockwell Collection. Hours: Mon. thru Sat. 10-4; Sun. 1-4. Call for Winter Hours (414) 755-4014. Group tours welcome. Please phone in advance.
